STRIKERS CABLE FOR HELP TO S. F. RIGGERS' UNION

Coast Organization Asked to Prevent Discharge of Cargo Going on Matsonia Today

80 HAWAIIANS GO BACK TO WORK ON OLD TERMS

Local Union Fails to Tie Up Lurline Work; Officials Refuse Any Statement

Three developments today in the "strike" of Honolulu union stevedores and longshoremen indicate plainly it is failing in its purpose, and that it is very doubtful whether the strikers can secure even a raise in wages, much less recognition of the "closed shop" principle demanded by the local union. Today's happenings are:

First—A cablegram for help was sent last night at 10:30 by Jack Edwards, business agent of the Sailors' Union of the Pacific and organizer of the Honolulu union, to the Riggers & Stevedores' Union of San Francisco. Union headquarters today refused to make public the message, but it is said to be an appeal to the San Francisco union to prevent discharge there of the cargo of the Matson steamer Matsonia, which steamed for that port today, carrying 10,000 tons of island cargo, all loaded by non-union labor.

Matsonia Not Delayed

Second—The Matsonia's departure from Pier 15 at 10 o'clock this morning, with a capacity cargo, and leaving on time to the minute, demonstrates that the union men here have not been able either to delay the liner's departure or prevent her from taking on a full cargo. When the strike began Monday morning union men were confident they could gain both these ends, using them as a lever to make the local Matson agents, largest employers of longshore labor in this port, concede their demands.

Lurline Work Normal

Third—Discharging of the Matson steamer Lurline's cargo is progressing today at Pier 20 with 225 men, all non-union, at work, and a significant fact is that of this number, at least 80 are Hawaiians. A statement issued this morning by McCabe, Hamilton & Reilly, says that more Hawaiians applied for and were given work unloading the Lurline last night and today than at any time since the strike began at 7 o'clock Monday morning.

"We have all the non-union men we can use working today on the Lurline," says the statement. "There are 225 men at work, of whom 80 are Hawaiians. More Hawaiians worked the Lurline last night and today than at any time since the strike was called."

More Hawaiians Returning

Officials of the stevedoring company said at noon today that they had 250 non-union men discharging the Lurline from 9 o'clock last night to 6 o'clock this morning, at Pier 15. The gates at Pier 15 were locked last night.

LANAI NOT YET SOLD; SHINGLE DENIES REPORT

An Associated Press despatch from San Francisco which said that Harold J. Lorentzen, former deputy collector of internal revenue in Hawaii, had announced the sale of the island of Lanai to Senator Key Pittman of Nevada and other cattlemen for $1,000,000 brought an absolute denial of the statement here today.

Robert W. Shingle said this morning that there was no truth to the report whatsoever, and that while the island may be for sale the report of its actual sale has no foundation.

CALDER LEADS IN NEW YORK ON RETURNS THAT ARE YET INCOMPLETE

(Associated Press by Federal Wireles)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Sept. 20.—In complete returns from the primaries being held show Calder's vote for the senatorial nomination to be 125,948, and Robert Bacon 117,995, with 1005 districts yet to be heard from. Governor Whitman is far in the lead over Judge Seabury, the Democratic nominee for the governorship.

MORE PROMOTIONS IN HAWAIIAN DEPARTMENT

Orders arriving on last night's mail from the mainland announce the promotion of two more officers of the Hawaiian Department—Lieut.-Col. Benjamin W. Atkinson with rank of colonel from June 12, 32nd Infantry, and Maj. William Weigel to be lieutenant-colonel, 2nd Infantry.

Honolulu Delegates Start For Civic Convention at Hilo

Ad Club delegation marches at Young Hotel and marches to steamer, taking with it as mascot the Kanaka gigante, the largest diva who has ever graced the operatic stage. This picture was taken by the Star-Bulletin staff artist immediately after the party started on its march to the pier.

CIVIC CONVENTION DELEGATES MAKE BRAVE SHOW ON MARCH TO STEAMER

Ad Club Delegation, More Than 50 Strong, Lead the Way; 200 Take Passage

"Hip-ho-hooray!" Leader Farrington waved his magic wand, the Kanaka gigante did a quick clog, Johnny Ness adjusted his pride—a brand new white hat—the thousandth time, the band blared and the Ad Club was on its way to Hilo. Bedecked in many hues but mostly orange and white, the half hundred delegates to the Hawaii Civic Convention and county fair were in line promptly at 9:15 in front of the Alexander Young hotel and at 9:30, with a mighty shout and banners popping in the air, they started for the Mauna Kea, preceded by the Hawaiian band. In full complement and blowing lustily.

And if there were smiles on the faces of daughter and son and mother, proudly watching from the sidelines "father" treading the pavement in immaculate white, there was also a twinkle in the eye of "father" and a buoyancy in Marching toes.

For the cry was, "On to Hilo, let he say nay who will," and nothing but

RETURNING HOME FROM SEARCH FOR MISSING HUSBAND

Mrs. L. A. Cunningham Fails to Find Spouse Who Wrote to Her to Meet Him

(Associated Press by Federal Wireles)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 20.—Mrs. L. A. Cunningham of Honolulu, who arrived here in the steamer Manoa, solicited the aid of the police of this city in an effort to locate her husband. She consented to remain at police headquarters over night pending an investigation, but thus far, it is reported, the police have been unable to secure any details as to the whereabouts of the missing husband. The police today received a message from Deputy Sheriff Julius W. Asch requesting them to allow Mrs. Cunningham to go on her way. She showed the police letters from her brother, Henry Zerbo of Honolulu, persuading her to return home. She plans to return to Honolulu in the Wilhelmina.

In search of an apparently delinquent husband, assailed by wireless messages on board, detained by the police during her only night in San Francisco, Mrs. L. A. Cunningham, formerly Louisa Zerbo, is today on her way to Honolulu in the Wilhelmina with a 14-day tale to tell her anxious mother when she reaches here that would do credit to a Rex Beach romance.

It is a long story of how a young man left his wife and she followed him, only to be saved from the wiles of a big city by the generous use of cable messages, one of which was misinterpreted, causing endless confusion, but it will be told here only in brief generalities.

Cunningham left his wife about 10 months ago, going to the coast and leaving her at work here at the Quality Inn and living with her mother. According to the police, Cunningham recently wrote to his wife saying he had inherited some money and asking her to come to him as soon as she had saved enough money to pay her passage. The girl decided to go, despite appeals of her family to the contrary.

September 12, in the Manoa, she left for San Francisco and the same day, but after the boat had left, her mother received a letter from a family in San Francisco telling that Cunningham had spent all his inheritance and ruined the family there. The mother was frantic and the brother, Henry Zerbo,

LEONARD TAKES PITCHERS' DUEL FROM YOUNGSTER

Boston Defeats Detroit in Second Game When Hendrikson Singles in Eighth

(Associated Press by Federal Wireles)
DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 20.—Hendrikson's single with Scott on third in the eighth inning of the second game between the Tigers and Red Sox, broke the tie and gave the Boston team the second victory in the series. "Dutch" Leonard, the leading southpaw of the Boston team, was sent in to pitch against Howard Ehmke, the youngster secured from the International League. Both pitched good ball, but Leonard proved the most effective in the pinches. He formerly pitched for the Los Angeles Club of the Pacific Coast League.

Bill Carrigan, manager of the Champs, went behind the bat, but was relieved by Thomas Stange and Baker were the receivers for Detroit. The last game of the series will be played tomorrow here, and Detroit must win to figure in the fight for the flag.

AERO CLUB OF AMERICA SENDS CONGRATULATION

President of National Organization Writes Gen. Evans as to Hawaii Aero Club

Gen. Robert K. Evans, president of the Aero Club of Hawaii, is in receipt of a most enthusiastic letter from Alan R. Hawley, president of the Aero Club of America, congratulating him upon the organization of the Aero Club here, and assuring Hawaii of the warm support of the older organization in its work in these islands.

Gen. Evans and Hawley are old friends, both having been interested in aeronautics for America and having met at St. Louis during the international balloon races in 1907, when aeronauts from all over the world came to contest for the Gordon Bennett balloon trophy, won the previous year at Paris by Lieut. Frank P. Lahm. Gen. Evans was in command at Jefferson barracks at that time. Hawley was one of the contestants. Hawley's letter, in part, is as follows:

Aero Club of America, September 6, 1916.
Brig.-Gen. Robert K. Evans, Honolulu, Hawaii.
My Dear General: The Aero Club of America sends you hearty congratulations upon your enthusiasm in organizing the Aero Club of Hawaii, as stated in the Star-Bulletin of August 23, 1916.

We are sending you a copy of the 1916 year book of the Aero Club of America, which contains the articles of affiliation.

We shall be glad to receive from you the necessary papers and documents relative to application for affiliation.

At this time when the United States government is just realizing the value of aeronautics in the army and navy, it is especially gratifying to know of the enthusiastic support which the movement is receiving in the Hawaiian Islands.

We extend to you our best wishes for the success of the Aero Club of Hawaii and trust you will keep us advised of all that transpires attendant upon its activities.

Yours very truly,
ALAN R. HAWLEY,
President, Aero Club of America.
